

Homework 7

CS 4364/5364
Spring 2022

Due: 18 April 2022

(10 points) In the class' MS Team, under the Wikipedia channel, then files there is a new excel sheet. As an individual/team submit the topic you will be using and a link to the page if it already exists. Also list all of the team members.

If the topic you want to do is already on the list contact the person who signed up and have a conversation. If you don't know what you want to do but want to work with someone look at the list and contact your peers who have interesting topics.
